

KEEP WHAT YOU EARN WITH RUSSELL PAYNE & CO

Wednesday 20th January 2010,

The Lincoln Suite, Lincoln Hotel, Eastgate, Lincoln, LN2 1PN (11.30am start)

Before you and your clients go ahead and pay your tax liabilities on 31st January 2010, you are cordially invited to an exciting event which we are holding at the aforementioned venue on Wednesday 20th January 2010, starting at 11.30am through until 1.30pm (lunch provided).

This session is all about how you can generate opportunities for your business and in so doing benefiting your clients and contacts. This session is by invitation only and places are strictly limited

David Gill of Peak Performance Tax will be presenting a portfolio of tax saving strategies aimed at high net worth individuals and companies. The feedback from similar sessions has been excellent, so knowing the type of clients that you have, I felt sure that you would want to attend.

Just to give you a flavour of the benefits that the strategies can deliver, I am aware of a number of business owners generating profits in excess of £200,000 who have already been able to reduce their corporate and personal tax to zero by implementing strategies. I am also aware of banks, solicitors and financial advisers who have attended previous sessions have been able to win and generate new business (and therefore profit) by using this knowledge

I am sure that the above event will be of significant interest to you and your clients and perhaps you could let me know as soon as possible if you would like to attend and bring any guests with you.

In summary, the prospects & clients who will be interested in the presentation are Company Directors with annual profits in excess of £200,000, self employed persons with annual profits in excess of £150,000 and company directors who currently enjoy a salaried remuneration package in excess of £60,000 per annum.

Refreshments will be served from 10.30am, the presentation will commence at 11.30am prompt and we are scheduled to finish the presentation around 1.30pm. However, David is staying in town for the rest of the day, to meet prospective clients.

Please either use the faxback form attached, or call Emily on 01522 533588, or alternatively email emily@russellpayne.co.uk to confirm your attendance.

Yours sincerely

Russell Payne
