

Keep What You Earn

with Russell Payne & Co...

Date: Tuesday 23rd November 2010 Time: 9.00am – 1.30pm, lunch provided
Venue: The Robert Hardy Suite, Bishop Grosseteste College

Before you go ahead and pay your tax liabilities on 31st January 2011, you ought to attend an exciting event which we are holding at The Robert Hardy Suite, Bishop Grosseteste College on Tuesday 23rd November 2010, starting at 9am through until 1.30pm (lunch provided).

This session is all about how you can generate opportunities for your business.
The session is by invitation only and places are strictly limited.

David Gill of Peak Performance Tax will be presenting a portfolio of tax saving strategies aimed at high net worth individuals and companies. The feedback from similar sessions has been excellent.

Just to give you a flavour of the benefits that the strategies can deliver, we are aware of a number of business owners generating profits in excess of £200,000 who have already been able to reduce their corporate and personal tax to zero by implementing strategies. We are also aware of banks, solicitors and financial advisers who have attended previous sessions have been able to win and generate new business (and therefore profit) by using this knowledge.

We are sure that the above event will be of significant interest to you and your business colleagues and perhaps you could let us know as soon as possible if you would like to attend and bring any guests with you.

In summary, the prospects & clients who will be interested in the presentation are Company Directors with annual profits in excess of £200,000, self employed persons with annual profits in excess of £150,000 and company directors who currently enjoy a salaried remuneration package in excess of £60,000 per annum.

The presentation will commence at 9am prompt and we are scheduled to finish the presentation around 1.30pm. However, David is staying in town for the rest of the day, to meet prospective clients.
